1. Preamble

Rain Forest Research Institute (RFRI), Jorhat, Assam, a constituent Institute of the Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education (ICFRE), Dehradun, came into being in 1988 to cater to the forestry related research & extension needs of the North Eastern Region of the country. The Institute attends to the issues related to forestry research, education and extension in all the North Eastern states including Sikkim, through the facilities at Jorhat and two centres under this institute, viz.- the Forest Research Centre for Bamboo & Rattan (FRC-BR) located at Aizawl (Mizoram) and the Forest Research Center for Livelihood Extension(FRC-LE), Agartala (Tripura).

Jagannath Barooah College (Autonomous) (JBC), Jorhat, Assam, (affiliated to Dibrugarh University, Assam), established in 1930, is a premier institution of higher education in the North-East India situated in Jorhat. The college provides quality education through different Bachelor and Masters Degrees programmes. The institution has been reaccredited by NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) and awarded "A" grade on the basis of its performance in the field of higher education. The college was awarded an Advanced Institutional Biotech Hub by the Department of Biotechnology (DBT) with effect from 2017-18. Recently, University Grants Commission has conferred the autonomous status to this institution.

2. Purpose: The purpose of this MoU is to establish the terms and conditions under which both the parties agree to engage in an effort to promote academic and research activities by expanding the mutual relationship.

3. Responsibilities: Under this MoU responsibilities will be identified through consultation between the two parties. RFRI and JBC mutually agree to provide technical assistance in terms of teaching, research, and training and to carry out activities such as holding of seminar/ conference/ workshop etc. Both the parties may conduct joint research and extension activities apart from submitting proposals jointly for funding by national and international funding agencies.

4. General Provisions:

i) Amendment: Either party may request changes to this MoU. Any change, modification, revision or amendment to this MoU which are mutually agreed upon by the parties to this MoU shall be incorporated by a written instrument, and the amendment shall be effective when executed and signed by both the parties to this MoU.
